From the Paris Gazette, dated July 18.

Madrid, July 3.

THE Army of the Enemy commanded by the Marquis das Minas, continues encamp'd at Alameda, where there is plenty of Forrage, and at Argannan which lies not far from it. The 24th of last Month Don Antonio de Leyva with 80 Horſe, marching from the Camp at Caſablanca, which is within a League of Ciudad Rodrigo, attack'd the Enemy's grand Guard and drove them to the Head of their Camp, killing or wounding many of them. The Enemy detach'd 2 Squadrons to follow him, but he retir'd in ſo good order, that charging them ſeveral times, he took 5 Priſoners, and return'd without any Loſs. The King's Army continues very near that of the Enemy, and the Marquis de Thoy having approach'd their Camp, found them ſo well intrench'd that he did not think it feaſible to attack them. Badajox is furniſh'd with all things neceſſary for its Defence, and the Garriſon in it conſiſts of 1500 Foot all Veterans, beſides Militia and Horſe: The King has made Don Antonio Pacheco de Villegas Governour of it. The Body commanded by the Marquis de Bay has made ſeveral Incurſions into the Enemy's Country, and brought off Cattle and Priſoners. Among them was a Deſerter, who in hopes to ſave his Life, ſaid Don Luis Fernandez de Cordoua Colonel of Horſe, had ſent him with a Pacquet to the Amirante. That Officer, who has diſtinguiſh'd himſelf by his Valour, being thereupon exámin'd, and not the leaſt Proof of Guilt appearing, his Accuſer was tried, Who when he was condemn'd to Death, retracted all he had ſaid, and juſtify'd Don Luis Fernandez de Cordoua. The regular Prieſt who had the chief Hand in the Conſpiracy of Grenada, and 3 Seculars his Accomplices, were brought hither this Morning, and are put into the Court-Priſons. Four Officers of the royal Council are nominated to form the Marquis de Leganez's Proceſs, and have begun by taking an Inventory of his Papers. Three hundred Men are ſent from Malaga to Port St. Mary. The Fortifications of Cadix, and of the neighbouring Poſts, are in good Repair; and are ſupplying with Proviſions, Ammunition, Arms, and whatever is neceſſary for their Security, and the Defence of the Coaſt.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated July 21.

Cazeres, June 30. After the Retreat of the Army commanded by the Earl of Gallway into Portugal, the Marſhal de Theſſe march'd the 23d Inſtant before Day from his Camp near Badajox, with the French Horſe and the Spaniſh Regiment of Milan, leaving the Spaniſh Horſe under the Command of the Marquis de Bay, who the 25th order'd them into Quarters appointed for them, and 3 Squadrons of them were put into Badajox. The 3 French Battalions of la Sarre, Gaſt, and the Iſle of France, march'd to Talavera, Merida, and Almorin, and the French Hoſpital is ſettled at Merida. The 25th the Marſhal de Theſſe encamp'd at la Voua, the 26th at las Huertas, and at 1 the next Morning the Troops fil'd towards their Quarters. Six Battalions and the Horſe were order'd to paſs the Tagus at Alcantara, to joyn the Marquis de Thoy; and the Regiment of Dragoons of Monmain came with the Marſhal hither, where he has fix'd his Head Quarters. In this March, he diſpatch'd Monſieur de Chalet one of his Aides de Camp, to the Courts of France and Spain, to give the 2 Kings an Account of the Operations of the Campaign. Yeſterday we receiv'd Advice, that the Enemy having in vain attack'd the Town and Caſtle of Marvan, and loſt 300 Men, have block'd it up by the Quarters they have eſtabliſh'd in the Places round it. There are 2 Months Proviſions in it. Upon Advice that the Marquis das Minas was on the March the 26th, the Marquis de Thoy put himſelf at the Head of the Spaniſh Horſe of his flying Camp, and follow'd the Enemy with Deſign to harraſs their Rear Guard, which he did; and returning to his Camp, march'd the 27th to Ciudad Rodrigo: When he has put his Troops into Quarters, he will ſet out for the Court of France, whither the King has given him Leave to return.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated July 21.

Madrid, July 2. Two Days ago Sr. Tobit Bourk, Envoy extraordinary from [the pretended] King James III. of great Britain, had his firſt publick Audience of the King and Queen with the uſual Ceremonies. The 24th of laſt Month there was a great Hubbub in one of the Streets of this City, occaſion'd by a ſtop of Coaches; the Marquis de Caſanata a Relation of the deceas'd Cardinal Caſanata, Secretary of the Council of Arragon, and Adjutant of the King's Chamber, ſtepping out of his Coach provok'd the Marquis d' Aſtorgas a Grandee of Spain of the firſt Rank, to come out of his and draw; they made ſeveral Paſſes at each other, and the latter being ſlightly wounded in the Arm, return'd home, where he was viſited by all the chief Noblemen. The Marquis de Caſanata retir'd into the Church of the Italian Nation, and notwithſtanding the Marquis d' Aſtorgas deſir'd the King and the Cabinet Council that he might not be proſecuted, Informations of the Fact were taken againſt him; he is turn'd out of his Office of Secretary; his Key that gave him Entrance into the King's Chamber in Quality of Adjutant, and which was worth to him 6000 Ducats a Year, is taken from him; he is condemn'd to a 10 Years Baniſhment in the Caſtle of Oran; and fin'd 10000 Crowns. The 19th of laſt Month 7 of the principal Perſons concern'd in the Conſpiracy form'd in Grenada, were executed in that City, among them a Phyſitian nam'd Franciſco Maria Carambona an Italian born at Spoleto: and others were executed the next Day. A Perſon in the Habit of a Pilgrim has been ſeiz'd here, for holding ſeditious Diſcourſe among the Country People; ſeveral Letters were found about him that are neither ſign'd nor directed.

From the Harlem Courant, dated July 23.

Paris July 17. Monſieur du Caſſe, has written a Letter to the King from Cadix, in ſubſtance as follows:

'A Great Quantity of Proviſions, Bullets, Powder, 'Bombs, and other Ammunition, is brought hi-'ther from Seville; and Batteries are rais'd on the 'Shore near the Puntals, and by Porto-real; I have 'view'd the Works, and found them in a tolerable 'good Condition: There are on the Iſland of Leon '400 Dragoons and 800 Foot: Port St. Mary, Rot-'ta, and San Lucar, are well provided for their Se-'curity. They write to me from the Blockade of 'Gibraltar, that they find it very difficult to hinder 'the Spaniſh Peaſants from holding a Communication with the Garriſon, and carrying Proviſions into the Place. Monſieur de Meriquas, who commands that Blockade with 700 Horſe, and is encamp'd on this ſide the River that runs into the Bay, writes that the Garriſon keep quier, and that he has ſeiz'd 15 Peaſants who endeavoured to get into the Place. 4 Spaniſh Gallies commanded by the Conde de Foncaſada, are arriv'd here. To Day I have caus'd my 4 Ships to be brought out of the Puntals into the Road, that I may make uſe of them when Occaſion offers.

'on

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 24.

Madrid, July 3. Don Antonio Luis del Ballie, Governour of Dendermond in the low Countries, is made Lieutenant General of the King's Armies. The Garriſons of St. Sebaſtian, Fontarabia, and other Important Poſts, are reinforc'd by French Troops. They write from Cadix, that they work to fortify that Place; that the Garriſon, which already conſiſts of 3000 Men, is to be augmented; and that on the 20th paſt an Order was publiſh'd there, enjoyning all the Poor to depart the Town in 4 Days, and forbidding the Townſmen to hang any ſort of Flag or Colours out of their Windows, or to let off any Rocket or other Firework in the Night, under the Penalty of being baniſh'd to Africk for 3 Years.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated July 21.

Paris, July 17. The Duke of Grammont being return'd from Madrid, has been very well receiv'd by the King, who has expreſs'd himſelf ſatisfied with his Negociations and Conduct in his Ambaſſy at the Court of Spain. We have Advice, that when the Princeſs of Urſini arriv'd at Bourdeaux, ſhe was receiv'd with a Diſcharge of the Artillery by the Marſhal de Montrevel, who treated her very magnificently in the Archiepiſcopal Palace during her ſtay in that City. She receiv'd there Letters from the King and Queen of Spain, in which they expreſs'd their Impatience to ſee her: A little beyond Bayone, ſhe will find the Coaches and Train their Majeſties have ſent to meet her.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated July 25.

Bayone, July 11. The Princeſs of Urſini paſs'd through this Place the 9th Inſtant without ſtopping, in her Way to St. John de Luz, where ſhe will ſtay 3 Days and then proceed to Madrid. She would not accept of the Lodgings prepar'd for her here, becauſe they were the ſame in which the Duke de Grammont was entertain'd, and it ſeems there is great Enmity between him and her.

Paris, July 20. Letters from Spain, tell us Monſieur Orri is to have the whole Management of the Pay of the Spaniſh Troops, as he has of the Pay of the French Troops in that Kingdom. The 18th an Officer arriv'd at Court, who brought the Marquis de Leganez Priſoner from Buen-retiro to Pampelona; and had Admittance to the King. 'Tis confeſs'd at Court, that nothing criminal is found in that Marquis's Papers, but 'tis ſaid however he will be confin'd in the Caſtle Trompette at Bourdeaux.

London, July 20.

The following Letter is from an Officer; we think it not improper to incert it, as an Inſtance of the general good Opinion which we are well aſſur'd our Soldiers have of the Expedition they are upon.

From the Camp under the Walls of Louvain, the 9th of July 1705.

Dear Brother,

'I Know all the Accounts of our late Action and paſſing the Lines you'll have in London ſo much more exact than I can Write it, that I'll refer you to it; and only ſay that you may be aſſur'd where-ever we meet the French we ſhall beat them: but I hardly believe they dare to ſtand us in any Place; therefore I no more think of Quartering in Holland, but Flanders. They have ſeveral Battalions in this Town, and their Camp is on the other ſide of it; but moſt People think they'll be forc'd to remove ſoon, or ſtand a Fight, which is all we wiſh for, and they will avoid if poſſible. We are all damnably flush'd with Victory, and have ſo many Priſoners we don't know what to do with 'em: In a little time you'll hear of more Action, and that Antwerp or Bruſſels is ours; either Places us'd to have admirable Wine, and you may depend I'll remember all my Friends in the firſt Bumper, for 'tis impoſſible to be kill'd this Year. I deſire my Friends to whom I owe Money, not to be in pain, for the plundring of one good C-nv-nt, ſets all Matters even again. I write this in Bed, my Eyes are but half open, and I never was ſo fatigu'd in my Life; therefore I deſire you'll forgive my not being more particular, and believe me, &c.

The Fifth and laſt Volume of the Roman Hiſtory, from the Reſtitution of the Empire by Charles the Great, to the taking of Conſtantinople by the Turks, containing the ſpace of 453 Years. Written by the Author of the third and fourth Vollumes, and carefully Reviſ'd by Lawrence Echard, A. M. being a further continuation of his Hiſtory, with a compleat Index to the whole Five Vollumes. As alſo the Second Edition of the Fourth Vollum of the ſaid Hiſtory. Both printed for Jacob Tonſon within Grays-Inn-Gate next Grays-Inn-Lane.

The Famous Collick Water (ſo often mention'd in the Gazette, particularly in Thurſdays, April 26.) is ſo well known throughout England, for giving ſpeedy Relief in caſes of Wind, Wind-Collick, Vapours of both kinds, Sinking of the Spirits, Stitches and Pains in the ſides, Gripes, Fluxes, Vomiting or Looſneſs, and all Indiſpoſitions and Weakneſs of Stomach and Bowels (immediately digeſting any thing that offends) that the Author thinks it would leſſen it to ſay more of it, therefore, only gives further notice that 'tis continued to be ſold at theſe four places (viz.) Old Man's Coffee-houſe at Charing-Croſs, Alice's at the Parliament-houſe, Richard's at Temple-bar, and at Clark's Stationer in Burchin-Lane, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. 'Tis not purging, but a rich Cordial pleaſant to take at any time, and of excellent uſe to carry to Sea, being an immediate help in Fluxes, Gripes, &c. When once try'd none would be without it. Beware of Counterfeits that under other Names imitate it, and live only by thus pyrating upon one and another; The True is ſold only at the 4 places before named.

The Roman Eſſence, a few drops of which dropt in a Baſon of warm Water, and ſet in the middle of a Room, takes away all ill Scents, and Perfumes it to Admiration; it prevents Wrinkles in the Face and Hands, and gives a delightful Flavour, as it doth likewiſe to Shifts, Handkerchiefs and Linnen. It takes away the ill ſmell of Soap, and leaves a moſt pleaſant and laſting Odour; and for preſerving the Hair of the Head and Periwigs, it hath not its equal, keeping them from falling off or changing Colour, Strengthens the Hair, and keeps it in the Curl longer than any thing now in uſe; to be had at Mr. Scampton's at the Angel over againſt the Mermaid-Tavern in Cornhill, Mr. Osborns at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, and at Mr. Girards at the 3 Flower-de-luces near Northumberland-houſe in the Strand, Toy-Shops, at 1 s. 6 d. the Bottle, ſeal'd up with Directions.
